[redacted] SECRET [redacted]

A/B, 5, 133/11

27 September 1951

MEMORANDUM FOR FILE

[redacted] C A

CIA - 24 September 1951

C [redacted] stated that:

C 1. [redacted] had talked to [redacted] C about having [redacted] H-B 13 undertake the polygraph comparison project. [redacted], on 25 September, phoned [redacted] of [redacted] who said he would A check up on this matter.) C

C 2. [redacted] has seen [redacted] called [redacted] who said he would report his findings t[redacted]). B/3A

3. The interrogation study is considered very important by the panel. This study should be valuable not only to the project, but the techniques developed in the last few years would be of value to the general operation of CIA. In addition there are doubtless answers to certain Bluebird questions which have been developed in the last five years.

4. The following persons or groups might be considered for employment on a regular basis to organize the details of the psychological phase of the program.

H-B/3 a [redacted]

H-B/6 b [redacted]

c [redacted] (Now working o[redacted])

B/6 d [redacted] a [redacted]

B/6 5. [redacted] might be considered as a regular consultant in the initiation of the narco-hypnosis or narco-analysis phase of the project.

A [redacted]

[redacted] SECRET [redacted]